Policy E-001 - PROGRAMS, SERVICES AND CURRICULUM

Procedure E-001.16 – Intramural Competition

The Board of Education directs the Superintendent to establish and maintain a program of intramural activities in all secondary schools as part of the regular physical education program. These programs shall be without discrimination and shall involve the greatest number of students possible. Qualified personnel shall be provided for coaching and supervising each program. Programs will be reviewed annually by district administrators for levels of participation and overall effectiveness.
